

BERG'S-EYE VIEW DEPT.

The Lighter Side Of...

ARTIST AND WRITER: DAVE BERG

Muchos gracias for inviting me to breakfast, amigo! Please, before eet comes, I need ball point pen to feel out thees forms I have to mail thees morning! Muy importante!

Not on your life, Sergiol! This pen is very expensive!

C'mon, I only need eet for a minute! I geev it right back!

That's what they all say, then you never see your pen again!

I should know! That's how I got it to begin with!

The school parking lot is divided between the student section and the teacher section!

How do you know which is which?

That's no problem! The students have the expensive cars!

Okay, son—run out for a long pass!

Got it!

Great! Now pretend the deli is the goal line and keep running! When you score the touchdown, pick up a loaf of bread and a container of milk!

It's the only way I can get him to go to the store!
